

Application Form GATT

*Detach and read these instructions before completing this form.
Make sure all applicable spaces have been filled in before you return this form.*

BASIC INFORMATION

When to use this form: Use Form GATT on or after January 1, 1996, to register a copyright claim in a work in which U.S. copyright was restored under the 1994 Uruguay Round Agreements Act (URAA).

This form is appropriate to register a single work or a series of works published under a single title in multiple episodes, installments, or issues during the same calendar year. The author(s) for each work in the series must be the same, and the owner(s) of U.S. copyright for each work in the series must be the same. Note: The author and the owner of U.S. copyright do not have to be the same party.

Restoration of copyright: Works from any source country eligible under the URAA may be subject to automatic copyright restoration. However, to be so restored, a work must meet the following requirements:

1. The work is not in the public domain in its source country through expiration of the term of protection.
2. The work is in the public domain in the United States due to:
 - a. noncompliance with U.S. copyright formalities;
 - b. lack of subject matter protection in the case of sound recordings fixed before February 15, 1972; or
 - c. lack of national eligibility.
3. The work has at least one author (or rightholder in the case of sound recordings) who was, at the time the work was created, a national or domiciliary of an eligible country.
4. If published, the work was first published in an eligible country and was not published in the United States during the 30-day period following publication in the eligible country.

Note about architectural works: Restoration of U.S. copyright for architectural works is available only to architectural works published or constructed on or after December 1, 1990.

Definitions:

Eligible country: A nation other than the United States that is a member of the Berne Convention, or a member of the World Trade Organization, or is subject to a presidential proclamation restoring the U.S. copyright to works of that nation on the basis of reciprocal treatment.

Source country of a restored work: A nation other than the United States.

For an unpublished work, the source country is the eligible country of which the author is a national or domiciliary. If a restored work has more than one author, the source country is the country of which the majority of foreign authors are nationals or domiciliaries. If the majority of authors are not foreign, the source country is the nation other than the United States that has the most significant contacts with the work.

For a published work, the source country is the eligible country in which the work was first published. If the restored work was published simultaneously in two or more eligible countries, the source country is the eligible country that has the most significant contacts with the work.

Owner of U.S. copyright: A claim in a restored work may be registered only in the name of the owner(s) of the U.S. copyright, that is, in the name of the owner(s) of all U.S. rights in that work. A licensee or other owner of only certain exclusive rights in a work is not permitted to register a claim in a restored work in his name.

Requirements for registration: Send a completed Form GATT, plus a deposit of the work(s) to be registered, and the filing fee together in one package addressed to:

Library of Congress
Copyright Office
101 Independence Avenue, S.E.
Washington, D.C. 20559-6000

For delivery instructions for film prints (16 or 35 mm), contact the Performing Arts Section of the Examining Division at (202)707-6040 or fax (202)707-1236.

Application Form: Complete Form GATT legibly in black ink or type. Photocopies of the form are permitted if reproduced on good quality 8 1/2 by 11-inch white paper and printed head to head so that the top of page two is directly behind the top of page one.

Deposit:

Published works: Send one copy that best represents the copyrightable content of each work in which U.S. rights are restored and for which registration is being made, in the following order of preference:

1. The work as first published;
2. A reprint or re-release of the work as first published;
3. A photocopy or identical reproduction of the work as first published;
4. A revised version containing a substantial amount of the copyrightable content of the restored work as first published, together with a written statement of the percentage of the restored work appearing in the revised version.

Exceptions: Please note the following exceptions to the deposit policy.

Previously registered works: No deposit needed for works previously registered in the U.S. Copyright Office.

Three-dimensional works of the visual arts: One or more photographs, preferably in color.

Machine-readable works: For works embodied only in machine-readable format,

- a. One machine-readable copy plus a descriptive statement* or
- b. Representative excerpts of the work, such as printouts or, if the work is an audiovisual work, a videotape.

* A descriptive statement for a machine-readable work is a separate written statement giving the title of the work, nature of the work (for example, computer program, database, videogame, etc.), plus a brief description of the purpose or subject matter of the work.

Fee: The $30 filing fee (effective through June 30, 2002) may be paid in any of the following ways:

Checks, money orders, or bank drafts made payable to the Register of Copyrights and redeemable without service or exchange fees through a U.S. institution, must be payable in U.S. dollars, and must be imprinted with American Banking Association routing numbers. Currency, international money orders, and postal money orders that are negotiable only at a post office are not acceptable.

To charge the filing fee on a credit card, include in a separate letter the type of card, name of individual or firm as it appears on the card, the account number, expiration date, the total amount, and the signature of the card holder authorizing the Office to charge the fee to the account. DO NOT GIVE CREDIT CARD INFORMATION ANYWHERE ON THE APPLICATION FORM ITSELF.
